

THE QUADRA WEEKLY BRIEFING

Dear Quadra Community,

It has been a chilly week of learning here at Quadra. This coming week, please be sure that your student(s) are well dressed for a dose of winter weather.

We are pleased to see the curb leading up to our front loop entrance is now painted yellow. This means there is no stopping or parking there. The reason for this change is that we had reports of several student near misses while crossing the school driveway entrance. This was due to cars parked in this area occluding the view of drivers using the pull through. Thank you for observing this new no parking/stopping zone and thanks to Ready Step Roll – Active School Travel Planning for helping us increase the safety of our students walking and wheeling to school!

Reminder there is no school Friday, February 12, 2021 for ProD and Monday, February 15, 2021 for Family Day.

Looking Ahead:

- Feb. 12
 - ProD – No school for students
- Feb. 13- Mar. 15
