

THE QUADRA WEEKLY BRIEFING

Dear Quadra Community,

Please remember that students only come to school for 3 days next week. Monday, Sept. 27th is a Professional Development Day and students will not be in attendance; Thursday, Sept 30th is the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and students will not be in attendance. Our students do attend on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday next week. Parents please complete the Student Verification Form Package that was sent home last week and return to homeroom teacher ASAP. Part of the information included in this pack up invited you to log on to <https://parent.connect.sd61.bc.ca> to grant school permissions. The parent connect website is a replacement for most of the forms you used to have to sign and return. If you have not yet done so, please log on, create an account and complete the forms. Please connect with the office if you are experiencing problems.

In other news: We have created a different recess/play supervision schedule that launched this week. Part of what has changed are the zones and the groupings of students. This schedule is still being evaluated and will continue to be so for the next several weeks.
