

THE QUADRA WEEKLY BRIEFING

Dear Quadra Community,

We are almost at the end of the year and this means that our lost and found items will be on display in front of door 'C' from the 26th to the 29th of June. That being said, parents/guardians do not have to wait until the last week of school to peruse our lost and found selection (see us in the office and we will direct you to our cache of not so gently used clothes).

A big shout out to our music teachers, Mrs. Pollet and Mrs. Whyte, for all their hard work putting together our year end concerts. Mrs. Pollet's concert for parents/guardians took place this Thursday and Mrs. Whyte's concert happens next week on Wednesday. Thanks to all our staff who helped prepare our students for these two events!

Quadra's Got Talent (QGT)

Please note that, due to unforeseen technical issues, our small but mighty PAC will not be able to air Quadra's Got Talent (QGT) this Friday, June 9th. Rest assured that our PAC coordinators are working diligently in order to have everything ready to go for an alternate date. As soon as we are able, we will let everyone know when QGT will be aired. Stay tuned.....

News from Our Community

FamilySmart is offering a free online event to support parents:

Beyond Behaviours: When Is It More? What It Looks Like at Ages 4 to 8:

Why can it feel so tricky to tell if our kids are on track, going through a phase, as opposed to struggling with something more, or beyond behaviours? In this video conversation, a parent and counsellor talk about the developmental stages of 4 to 8 year old children.

Speaker: Karen Peters, a mental health therapist who supports children, teens and families

Watch Now: <https://youtu.be/pilkiOVVaM>

Join one of our online events for viewing the video followed by a discussion with other parents.
