From Our PAC

Happy weekend families of Quadra. Here's a short update from the PAC:

Bottle Drive: The Next Bottle Drive is Sunday, April 7th, from 10-2:30. If you can help, please contact PAC at connect@quadrapac.net. Please find the time to donate any empties you might have!

Next PAC Meeting on Thursday, April 11th, from 7:00 to 8:30: We had to postpone last month's PAC meeting, so the agenda for this coming meeting remains the same as last month's, with some important items to discuss and lots of opportunities for parent engagement:

- Review of ideas from a survey of teachers and support staff completed about how to build a stronger school and community at Quadra

- Review of grant opportunities, including confirmation of needs (e.g. sensory items, playground equipment, etc.).
- Appointment of a grant coordinator to the PAC
- Update on the significant amount of Advocacy work that has taken place over the past month, especially in the area enhanced communication between the School and parents

Next Thursday, please join us on Zoom at <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/2505145143>.
